Great indoor market with lots for sale. Has a small cafe, toilets and various different stalls selling anything from books/records/gifts/clothes etc. Stall holders are friendly and you can most things you want.

Whether you want something in particular or you're just looking for trinkets this is the place to be. Friendly helpful locals who are willing to help in whichever way they can. If they haven't got it they know someone who might have. Also as a tourist the knowledge you can pick up about the area from everyone in the market is immense! A must when visiting Tavistock!!
